The age-old craftsmanship and rustic ambience of our facility is an attraction to many. It speaks of an unhurried time when people enjoyed one another's company and service was not a rushed commodity, but a well-practiced art.

The Barn at Ligonier Valley brings together the old-world craftsmanship of a Civil War era barn with modern amenities, including state-of-the-art climate control, a cloak room, plenty of parking, handicapped accessible facilities, large modern bathrooms, and more!

I chose The Barn at Ligonier for my reception and ceremony site. Tim Carson was right there from the beginning. We had requested to do our food tasting with them early so we could get everything else planned and he was so accommodating and got us in asap! Their food was so delicious we had a hard time choosing exactly what we wanted to have. I know I changed my mind a dozen times when it came to what I wanted for my wedding and each time Tim and his employees responded back quickly and always had an answer to any question I had. It was hard for me to plan the wedding because I could not call when I needed to but they made it convenient with me emailing them. We were able to get into the hall two full days ahead of my wedding date. There was a little hiccup with the set up but Tim Carson took care of it personally and quickly fixed the problem. The day of my wedding Tim and his team went above and beyond for me. My day went off with a bang and was perfect!
